Nothing Says “I Love You” Like a Ménage à Trois Are you up for it?

We all know the drill. Valentine’s Day with your sweetheart means a card, some roses, an expensive dinner, maybe some cuddling to finish off the evening.

This year, we have something different in mind. You know you’ve been thinking about it – what guy doesn’t? Now, we think she might finally be ready for it too.

It’s the Ménage à Trois. Oh yeah. The Holy Man Grail, the myth, the fantasy. You could go to Vegas and pay top dollar for one, but ours is only $8.99 and is ready for you every night. The Ménage Red brings together three gorgeous bedfellows: Zinfandel, Merlot and Cabernet. On top we’ve got Zinfandel, a saucy little tease that brings blackberry and pepper spice to the relationship. Merlot, with its generous mouth feel and round texture, fits perfectly in the middle. The rich flavors and firm tannins of Cabernet make it the ideal candidate for the bottom of this threesome. Together, they’re filled with fresh, ripe, jam-like fruit that is the calling card of California wine.

Ménage à Trois will come home with you for only $8.99 and is available at supermarkets and wine shops across the country. In addition to M nager   Trois Red, there is a M nager White and a M nager Ros , each one a blend of three different grapes. The wines are produced by Folie   Deux Winery in the heart of Napa Valley.
